Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 6, 2023, OpGen, Inc.'s (the "Company") subsidiary Curetis GmbH ("Curetis") received an advance payment of 750,000 euros related to the sale of certain Unyvero A50 systems by Curetis to a strategic partner. The final purchase of such systems will be made pursuant to a purchase agreement or purchase order to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. Such purchase of systems and advance payment was made in connection with the negotiation of a potential strategic transaction involving Curetis and the Company's subsidiary Ares Genetics GmbH ("Ares Genetics") with such strategic partner. The strategic partner may, in its discretion, purchase additional Unyvero A50 systems from Curetis while the parties continue to pursue a potential strategic transaction. Any such strategic transaction will be pursuant a definitive agreement entered into by the parties. The Company intends to use the advance payment to fund Curetis' and Ares Genetics' operations while it negotiates with the strategic partner.

The above discussion regarding the receipt by the Company of an advance payment related to the purchase of Unyvero A50 systems and a potential strategic transaction involving Curetis are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that are intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established thereunder. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that are often difficult to predict, are beyond the Company's control, and which may cause results to differ materially from expectations, including the risk that the definitive agreement with the strategic partner will not be successfully negotiated or consummated. In addition, for a discussion of factors that could materially affect the outcome of the Company's forward-looking statements and its future results and financial condition, see "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A, of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022 and its other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
